

VERMONT LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 29 NUMBER 4

SUMMER 2005

ARTICLES

Parting is Such Sweet Sorrow, But Does It Have to be So Complicated? Transmission of Property at Death in Vermont Stephanie J. Willbanks 895

Allocation of the Burden of Proof in Individuals
With Disabilities Education Act
Due Process Challenges Christopher Thomas Leahy & Michael A. Mugmon 951

NOTES

Toward A More Equitable Prosecution of Cybercrime:
Concerning Hackers, Criminals, and the National Security Alexander Urbelis 975

The Admissibility of DNA Evidence in Vermont Courts After Pfenning Emilee Davenport 1009

Keeping the Lights On—At All Costs? Imploring Consistent Prudence Review and a Prudence Standard that Includes Demand Response and Responsible Portfolio Management Heather N. Jarvis 1037

Reimagining the WTO: Applications of the New Deal
as Means of Remediating Emerging Global Issues Darren Springer 1067